NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

IN RE NATHAN ESLAMI,
Plaintiff.

Case No. 20-07847 BLF (PR)
Case No. 20-09395 BLF (PR)

ORDER CONSOLIDATING CASES; OF DISMISSAL

Plaintiff, who is currently being held at the California State Prison Solano (“CSP-Solano”) in Vacaville, California, filed a letter addressed to the Honorable Judge J. Tigar, claiming unsafe prison conditions at CSP-Solano due to the prison’s inadequate response to the pandemic. Due to a clerical error, the matter was opened as two separate cases as shown in the above caption.¹ For the sake of efficiency, the Court orders these two matters consolidated under the first case number, Case No. 20-07847 BLF (PR).

The Clerk sent Plaintiff separate notices to file a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and to file a form complaint in each case. In response, Plaintiff filed a letter stating that he “did not nor do I desire to initiate a civil case in any manner at this time,” and requests the clerk to “fix this error.” Case No. 20-07847 BLF (PR), Dkt. No. 5. Because Plaintiff clearly never intended to initiate a civil action when he filed the letter, the Court will grant the request and dismiss this consolidated matter. No filing fee will be

1 due for either action.

2 The Clerk shall terminate any pending motions in these consolidated cases and
3 close the files.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED.
